Does this change affect other departmental program/branch campuses? If yes, indicate below.

Reason(s) for Request (enter text below or upload a doc/pdf file)

The proposed revision of the Human Development in Families Concentration of the Master of Arts in Family & Child Studies is part of a major revision of the Family Studies Program that brings together the Family Studies Program and the Early Childhood Multicultural Education Program. The current revision of the Human Development in Families concentration will be renamed as the Human Development & Family Relations concentration of the revised Master of Arts in Family Studies that will be renamed to Master of Arts in Family and Child Studies. The current Form C request brings together two existing concentrations, Human Development in Families and Family Relations. This revision also decreases the total degree credits from 42 credits to 33 credits. Please see the executive summary that outlines all curricular changes to the Master of Arts degree. This summary is attached to the Form C that revises the existing Master of Arts in Family Studies

Upload a document that includes justification for the program, impact on long-range planning, detailed budget analysis and faculty workload implications.(upload a doc/pdf file)
