Please see the attached modified Appendix B from Form D for the new PhD program catalog verbiage. The modified Appendix B includes some minor additions, some rearranging of information and the deletion of some information from the originally approved catalog copy from Form D. The changes are described below. " We have decided to having rolling admissions throughout the year rather than a once a year cycle as was indicated before on the Form D. So the new admissions deadlines are new additions. " We also moved the application deadline for the PhD to fall under the PhD section so that it would not be confused with the Master's application deadline which is only once a year on Feb 1. " We deleted some information regarding the admissions requirements, as well as some information about how we will handle older SHS course work. All deletions are indicated by being struck out. " We added the sentence . See the SHS department website for details about how to apply to the program. directly before the struck out information about admissions requirements.
