Superior sophomore or junior students majoring in sociology or criminology with a GPA of c.3.5 in the major and 3.25 overall are invited to apply for admission to the department's six-credit Undergraduate Honors Thesis Program, beginning in their junior year. Students participating in this program are eligible to graduate with departmental honors if recommended by the faculty on the basis of outstanding performance. Honors students are required to take Sociology 399 (Advanced Workshop in Sociology) in the Spring term to be followed by 499 (Senior Honors Thesis) in a subsequent semester. See the Department's Honors Coordinator for specific requirements.

This Change affects other departmental program/branch campuses

Reason(s) for Request * (enter text below or upload a doc/pdf file)

To make it clear that it is for sophomore or junior students majoring in sociology or criminology. We want a GPA requirement.
