Supplement to Form C for
Master of Music, Concentration in String Pedagogy

Reasons for Request

MUS 529 Techniques of 20th-Century Composition is being sunsetted, and therefore is being deleted from any music degrees that list it as an option to fulfill degree requirements.

MUS 538 Selected Topics in Ethnomusicology (Form B in process) is being added as an option to the Music Electives section of the degree plan, which lists advanced courses in music history and theory as options for selection by the student. While the field of musicology has been viewed in the past as synonymous with the study of traditional music history, current trends have expanded the field to include topics previously assigned to ethnomusicology, and the methodologies of both areas now are more similar in their inclusion of cultural and sociological influences on the music being studied. In recognition of this broader definition of music history/musicology, it seems appropriate to add an ethnomusicology topics course as an option to join the existing MUS 537 Selected Topics in Music Literature and MUS 539 Selected Topics in Music Theory.

Justification, Planning, Budget, Faculty Workload

Justification for the Concentration:

N/A. This concentration already exists.

Impact on Long-Range Planning:

The addition of an ethnomusicology topics course as a "Music Electives" option represents a desire to embrace the more inclusive definition of music history that is now prevalent in the field. The change requested represents an effort to keep our music degrees current.

Budget Analysis and Faculty Workload Implications

There will be no impact on budget or faculty load by the addition of MUS 538 to the list of course options.
