

Provost and Faculty Senate Protecting the Classroom Learning Environment Task Force Charge

The Task Force is charged with reviewing existing policy and procedures around student disruptive behavior to address faculty rights and responsibilities in protecting the classroom learning environment for all students.