A moratorium was placed on admitting new students into this concentration in 2010 by the Dept. of Teacher Education. Since then, all students pursuing this concentration have graduated. ECME used to oversee this concentration in the Dept. of IFCE while the degree (MA Elementary Education) existed in the Dept. of Teacher Education. Both departments agreed to place a moratorium on new admissions in 2010 and to delete the concentration upon completion of all enrolled graduate students in the concentration. ECME was then asked by Ms. Elizabeth Barton to initiate the deletion Form C and submit with the package of forms associated with the creation of the graduate portion of the Family and Child Studies program. The Family and Child Studies program was created by merging the Family Studies Program and Early Childhood Multicultural Education program.
