

Request approval to change to the Academic Calendar dates for the spring semesters of 2020 and 2025. Currently, the spring semester is a week short in each of these terms. The start dates are incorrect. These are both leap years. My mistake was in clinging to a start date of MLK, Jr. Day, when the actual start date we use for the spring semester is the Monday of the third week of the year regardless of whether it happens to fall on MLK, Jr. Day.

For Spring 2020, the start date should be 1/13/2020.
 For Spring 2025, the start date should be 1/13/2025.

Here is a copy of the proposed corrected 10-year calendar.
