Organizational Leadership

Organizational Leadership – 15 hours

<http://orgleadership.mgt.unm.edu/bbacurriculum.asp>

The Organizational Leadership concentration focuses on leadership theory and principles and their application to practice. Core ethical principles and theories, the role of the leader in managing change and innovation, and leading a diverse workforce will be emphasized. The concentration will prepare students for a career in all types of organizations (private, government, non-profit) in which they expect to play a leadership role. Students are required to take MGT 362, 307, and 458 plus any two of: MGT 462, 457, 469, 492.

Within this concentration, students may substitute other Anderson School courses, or courses outside the Anderson School, with the department chair's prior written approval.
