

The J.D. and M.B.A. Degree Program

The School of Law and the Anderson Graduate School of Management offer a dual program leading to the degrees of Juris Doctor and Master of Business Administration. Under this program, the School of Law will accept 6 hours of graduate credit from the Business and Administrative Sciences degree toward the J. D. degree, and the Anderson Graduate School of Management will accept 6 hours of credit in the School of Law toward the 15 hours of elective credit in the second year of the M.B.A. program. Students pursuing this program must satisfy the admissions and other academic requirements of both schools. Those planning to enter the dual program should consult with the admission officers of both schools as early as possible.
