Management of Technology - 15 hours Students who are interested in careers in the Management of Technology (MOT) area should meet with a faculty advisor early in their program to discuss career options and to have their course selections approved. The MOT concentration prepares a student for a life-long career in various aspects of technology commercialization and technological entrepreneurship. All MBA students are required to take the principles course MGT 511. The requirements for the concentration are as follows: Two courses from the following four: 1) MGT 512 Strategic Management of Technology, 2) MGT 513 Technological Forecasting and Assessment, 3) MGT 514 Technological Entrepreneurship and 4) MGT 516 Entrepreneurial Finance plus three other courses from the other 51X series that can include the other two from the four listed above as well as MGT 515 Innovative Product Development, , MGT 517 E-Commerce: Management and Technology, MGT 518 Technology Management & Economic Development, and MGT 519 Project in Technology Commercialization.
