The minor in Military Studies (Army Option) is available to students in the Army ROTC. Awarding of minor in Military Science is contingent upon receiving a commission in the Army, Army National Guard or Army Reserves. The minor is administered by the Department of Military Science & Leadership. The minor requires 25 credits, all of which must be in upper-division Military Science and Leadership (MLSL) or alternate courses approved by the Department of Military Science & Leadership. A grade of "C" or better must be obtained for each course.
