Budgetary and Faculty Load Implications and Long-range planning-Certificate Nucs

Justification for offering the course: This course is a part of the existing Certificate in Nuclear Medicine Program. No additional faculty will be required to teach this class. Existing UNMH personnel (BATCAVE) will conduct laboratory modules or UNM faculty. These laboratory modules were previously part of HSCI 330, titled Patient Care, but are now being offered as a separate lab to provide more time within the summer semester to perform structured patient care modules.
