Add to section after header "Public Archaeology" and before "a)Core Requirements": The M. A. graduate concentration in Public Archaeology requires 36 credits and is only offered as Plan II (exam option). The MS option in Public Archaeology requires at least 6 additional graduate credits in sciences, such as Chemistry, Biology, Geology, and Mathematics. The final report developed through the 9 hours of the internship experience will serve as part of the final examination that will also include an oral component to be administered by the committee. Students earning an M.A./ M. S. with a concentration in Public Archaeology who wish to earn a Ph. D. in Anthropology must apply for and gain admission to the doctoral concentration in Archaeology.
