Policy & Planning 15 hours The Policy and Planning (P&P) concentration is oriented toward cross-functional problem-solving and analysis. Careers and employment resulting from the P&P concentration include strategic planning, public policy analysis, public affairs, nonprofit management, and other cross-functional positions. Course Requirements: Five courses are required to complete the concentration, including 569, 650, 651, 652, 653, 654, 655, 657, 658 and other relevant ASM courses approved by the faculty advisor. Students may also substitute one related graduate-level course from outside ASM with the approval of the faculty advisor.
