Does this change affect other departmental program/branch campuses? If yes, indicate below.

Reason(s) for Request (enter text below or upload a doc/pdf file)

The proposed Form C is being requested as part of the Revision of the Master of Arts in Family Studies into the Master of Arts in Family and Child Studies. The early childhood multicultural education program and the family studies program completed a merger into the Family and Child Studies program last academic year. This year the program is submitting curricular forms to revise the Master of Arts in Family and Studies into the Master of Arts in Family and Child Studies. The proposed Form C revises the existing concentration in Family Life Education into a new 33 credit concentration reducing the requirements from its existing 42 credit requirement. The revised concentration will be consistent with the two other concentrations of the newly revised Master of Arts in Family and Child Studies. All three concentrations will now required 33 credits. The proposed revision maintains its alignment with the national standards of the National Council of Family Relations standards for certification as a Family Life Educator.
